DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 10/30/2006. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-5, 7, 16 & 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Feld et al. (Comparative and Complementary Plasma Desorption Mass Spectrometry/Secondary Ion Mass Spectrometry Investigations of Polymer Materials, Anal. Chem. 1991, 63, 903-910).

Regarding Claim 1, Feld et al. disclose a plate for mass spectrometry comprising a support (e.g., aluminized foil) shaped to fit the sample inlet of a mass spectrometer (see “target” shown in Fig. 2 (6)) and a coating adhering thereto, wherein said coating contains polyvinylidene difluoride that is applied on the whole surface of the support (PVDF, Table 1 & P906/Left Column/“Sample Preparation”).

Regarding Claims 2-5, 7, 16 & 17, Feld et al. disclose the plate wherein:

- the support is made of aluminum (e.g., aluminized foil, Table 1);
- coating the whole surface of a support (PVDF, Table 1 & P906/Left Column/"Sample Preparation") shaped to fit the sample inlet of a mass spectrometer with polyvinylidene difluoride (see Fig. 2);
- the means for the coating is immersion (e.g., aluminized);
- applying a solution containing polyvinylidene difluoride to the support (PVDF, Table 1 & P906/Left Column/"Sample Preparation");
- mass spectrometry obtained (see Abstract); and
- the coating consists essentially of polyvinylidene difluoride (PVDF, Table 1 & P906/Left Column/"Sample Preparation").

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Feld et al. (Comparative and Complementary Plasma Desorption Mass Spectrometry/Secondary Ion Mass Spectrometry Investigations of Polymer Materials, Anal. Chem. 1991, 63, 903-910) and further in view of Franzen (US 5595636).

Regarding Claim 6, Feld et al. is silent on removing the solvent after application.

Franzen discloses method of preparing metal support utilizing polyvinylidene difluoride membrane for mass spectrometric analysis (Abstract). Franzen further teaches evaporating solvent post coating (C5/L4-6).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to remove any solvent of the surface, as taught by Franzen, to prevent signal interference.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 12/18/2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection as set forth above.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
